

Make Room

Make Room is a four-week interactive Bible study resource from Home for Good, created for individuals, small groups or whole churches.

 home
for good

Make Room

Make Room is a study for anyone, anywhere, who wants to dig a bit deeper into what the Bible has to say about the heart of God and how that so closely connects to finding a home for every child who needs one.

The study unpacks themes of justice, radical hospitality, family and church, and includes videos, real-life stories and compelling questions to spark conversations about how the Church can play its part.

For more information and to sign up to get this free resource visit homeforgood.org.uk/make-room

